- Guests in attendance: none
- Members not in attendance: Addie, Danea, McKinley

Approval of minutes

- A motion to approve the minutes of the February 11th meeting was made by Allen

Officer's reports

- Treasurer's report was presented by Aynslee; Heidi read our secretary report and Allen read his Vice Presidents Report about the 4-H Tech program.

Other reports

- We talked about the 4-H Carnival and our booths.
 - We sold 6999 tickets. Every booth did great, especially the wheel of sweets. Chicken game training needed, and we need to be more clear on prizes and have another adult helping
 - 2 ticket boxes at the chicken game, new wheel for the treats, make signs for the back of the booths so you can see them when you are in line better.
- We will ask the Junior Leader Club to provide concessions for our dog show in June. Motion was second by Cooper. They will have their meeting on March 25th to approve our request. We will need everyone to help with the dog show; concessions, managing the rings, prizes, advertising.
- Jennifer talked about the county Leader meeting; Cloverbud workshops every month beginning March 16th, financial aid is available from the Junior Leader Club and the 4-H Foundation. There will be a ribbon cutting for the new 4-H Community building on Tues., April 2nd beginning at 430pm, and all 4-H members are encouraged to attend.
- Dog Expo on Sun, April 7th in the McKee Bldg.
- Project reports: clothing workshops are in the clover connection, MQA went well, all our dairy kids got their training completed; vet science kids are doing great; shooting sports just had their orientation and practices are beginning.
- The beekeeping field trip will be moved to another date in April – maybe 27/28th? Leisa will reschedule.
- On GroupMe, please add a photo of you and your member so we can all get to know each other better.
- Demonstrations:
 - Kai – how to make an eyeglass chain.
 - Lily – how to trim your dog's nails.
 - Aynslee – dog crate safety in cars
 - Cooper – measuring tools.
- Please sign up for your Demonstration. You can sign up and watch past demonstrations on our website.
- Announcements
 - Club dog show is June 15th – all members need to help out.
 - County dog show is July 19th – 21st
